

Anabaptist Summer Camp Guide

For Campers with Disabilities

Amigo Centre, Sturgis MI. Amigo Centre is working with consultants to develop a day camp program for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Although enrollment for this year is closed, the hope is that more spaces will be available next summer. Amigo Centre has a small staff to camper ratio and works to accommodate campers with disabilities on a case by case basis.

Visit <http://www.amigocentre.org/>

Camp Mack, Milford, IN, provides a host site for two camps run by different organizations. A camp for youth with hearing loss from June 18-24, and camp for youth with Juvenile Arthritis from July 16-22. Their regular camp programs also offer accessibility accommodations to campers with disabilities.

Camp Mennoscah, Murdock, KS, offers a mental health spiritual retreat for adults on Labor Day weekend. Scholarships are available. The youth summer camp offers accommodations for children with disabilities as needed and as possible. Visit <http://campmennoscah.org/>

Brethren Woods, Keezletown, VA, offers a week of camp for campers with hearing loss that includes ASL interpreters and traditional camp activities. Visit www.brethrenwoods.org/elementarycamps/

We Are Able Work Camp, Elgin, IL, offers older teens and young adults with intellectual disabilities the chance to work together completing volunteer projects and having fun from July 10 -13. Contact etyler@brethren.org for more information.

Fraser Lake Camp, Bancroft, Ontario, offers an overnight camp experience with one-to-one support for campers with disabilities. The campers are integrated into the regular camp program with opportunity to have the space and time outside of the regular camp program, as needed. The 1:1 integration counselors create a wonderful experience for each camper tailored to their individual needs. Visit www.willowgrove.ca/Overnight-Camp

Willowgrove Day Camp, Stouffville, Ontario, offers 1:1 support for children with disabilities. Visit www.willowgrove.ca

Hidden Acres Mennonite Camp, New Hamburg, Ontario, accommodates campers with developmental disabilities into programs and services. Visit www.hiddenacres.ca

Anabaptist

Summer Camp Guide

For Campers with Disabilities

Laurelville, Mt. Pleasant, PA, offers Friendship Week, a retreat for families, friends, and persons with disabilities. Participants can commute or stay overnight. August 6-9. Visit

<http://www.laurelville.org/our-programs/friendship-week/>

Black Rock Retreat, Quarryville, PA, offers a week of camp for adults with disabilities. Visit www.blackrockretreat.com

Camp Hebron, Halifax, PA, offers Shalom, a week of camp for adults aged 18+ with developmental disabilities. Visit <http://www.camphebron.org/shalom>

Spruce Lake Camp, Canadensis, PA, offers a summer family camp week designed to accommodate activities and ministry for families touched by disability. Spruce Lake also hosts three Joni and Friends family camp weeks. Spruce Lake partners with Devereux Foundation to accommodate guests throughout the year, and inclusivity for those with disabilities is part of Spruce Lake culture. Visit: <https://www.sprucelake.org/>

Camp Swatara, Bethel, PA, offers three weeks of Monarch camp for adults aged 16+ with intellectual disabilities. Visit www.campswatara.org/resident/.

Camp Safari, Dayton, OH, offers a fun-filled camping experience for children and teens with learning disabilities, developmental disabilities including ASD, ADHD, ADD, Down syndrome, OCD, brain injury, anxiety, and other disabilities. Sponsored by the Southern Ohio district Church of the Brethren, Camp Safari will run June 12 - June 15. Visit <http://www.sodcob.org/events-wedge-details/529935/1497243600>.

Bethel Mennonite Camp, Clayhole, KY, offers a week of Special Needs Camp June 26th-30th . Overnight lodging is available on request for out-of-town campers accompanied by their caregivers. Activities include chapel, Bible stories, crafts, skits, simple games, singing, and a hayride. Daily activities take place in the chapel and dining hall, which are both wheelchair accessible.

Compiled by,  Anabaptist Disabilities Network (ADN).

ADN supports congregations, families, and individuals touched by disabilities to nurture inclusive communities.

Visit us online at ADNetOnline.org

3145 Benham Avenue, Suite 5, Elkhart, IN 46517, (574) 343-1362, 1-877-214-9838